

Family tradition in pakistan

In Pakistan family is headed by a old male member, to whom full respect and protection are given. Thus we can conclude that is the male oriented society. The oldest man in the family acts as a guide for the others, who teaches his children distinguish among right and wrong paths.

Hence old people are given the position of prestige, honour and respect in Pakistani society.

Fashion

Bangles and earrings:

Jewellery tradition is very old and women are very fond of jewellery. Bangles are the type of ornament worn by women. To wear bangles is a very old trend but the new trendy bangles are more versatile and lovable than ever before. There are different types of bangles some are of the metals and glass & some are made of gold and silver. Different types of bangles have different sounds like metals, gold also have attractive clinking sound.

On the Eid festival, there was a great crowd in all markets. All girls bought different kinds of bangles for their dresses. One of the accessories, that have been found is earring. They are also of different kind size and shapes. Earrings also found in different styles and colours that have great attractions for young girls.

As Pakistan's jewellery is considered to be a unique ornament in the world. As jewellery is used to enhance the beauty of the girls so we can see a wide variety of jewellery in gold, silver, copper and metal in Pakistan. Jewellery that is designed in Pakistan has a great demand worldwide. That's why in our marriage celebrations jewellery and the dress code are the mostly attracting terms.

Life style of Pakistan

Life style basically shows the living standard of people. All the provinces of Pakistan have different life style. They spoke different languages, dress up themselves according to their culture and the variety of food makes them unique from others. Thus cultural effect can be seem in their life styles.

Sindhi Lifestyle:

Like the people of Punjab, people of Sindh spoke Sindhi language that is an ancient language and speaks in most parts of the Pakistan. The people of Sindh wear Sindh dresses i.e. loose kameez and the shalwar and love to eat Sindhi food.

In typical Sindhi wedding, the food is mostly Sindhi mutton, curry, palak, channa-daal, dilpasand curry. Sindhi people are very initiative to work and their handicrafts have a unique and a different style. Sindhi culture can be seen in Sindhi Tablos and Shows. Sports that are famous in Sindhi culture includes Malakhiro, kodi-kodi, wanjh wati etc. Similarly Sindhi music is unique i.e. Sufi music is performed at shrines. Sindhi poetry like the poetry of Shah Abdul Latif Bhattai, Sheikh Ayaz, Ustad Bukhari, Sachal Sarmust is very famous in Pakistan.

People of Sindh love to wear Sindhi Toppi, that is the most eminent feature of Sindh culture. Its city Quetta food also had a great demand worldwide. Sindhis are hardworking, hospitable, open minded and peaceful in their nature. Although in Sindhi temples, images of Sri Rama and Sri Krishna is placed.

Folk Lores of Sindh also had a great importance

Punjabi Lifestyle:

Punjab is also the province of Pakistan, its land is considered to be the land of five rivers. Punjabi culture is the culture of Punjabi people that has been the richest and the oldest culture in the world history. The peoples who live in Punjab have different cast like some are of Rajput, Gujjar, Syed, Sheikh, Arai, these are all cast. The main site of Indus valley civilization in Punjab is the city of Harappa.

Punjabis speak a language called Punjabi. Punjabis is a plural and refers to people who come from the area known as Punjab. Punjabi language has its originating source in Sanskrit Punjab has always been land of great saints and fighters. Music of Punjab is becoming famous all over the world specially the Bhangra is the most eminent feature of culture.

Punjabis are very hardworking, love to hear music and dance which can be seen in their Bhangra beats that is becoming famous day by day. Weather of Punjab is very moderate, which shows a mild nature of their behaviour. The people are also very religious and fashionable. Hence Punjab is famous for its food also that people from all over the world love to eat and like come to Pakistan.

Balochi lifestyle:

Baluchistan is the largest province of Pakistan by geographical areas approximately 48% of Pakistan. Baluchistan culture is primarily tribal and conservatives, Balochi dry fruits are very famous all over the world. their special item Sajji is liked and loved. They also eat roasted lamb sand Mutton. Their dress code is very special i.e. shalwar Kameez and Turban. Women like to wear Froks and Shalwar. Their jewellery is made of metal which has a great attraction for them. Leather and goat hair works has gain popularity in the world. Now shoes, Sandals, Prayers Mats, Matting for stone shelter are getting popularity . Most of the women do embroidery on clothes. Thus Balochi culture is also rich in poetry and literature.

Handicrafts of Pakistan

Handicrafts of Pakistan are becoming popular rapidly in the world. Pakistan has a very rich culture which shows that there is great demand for its products. They are really hardworking people who love to work for others.

Pakistan is very famous for glass, wooden furniture, marble goods, pottery, Multan's bed sheets, camels made lamps, Kashmiri shawls and embroidery. Their work shows neatness that makes it attractive worldwide. These handicrafts contribute a lot towards GDP & earns high foreign exchange for the country.

Handmade products requires a lot of manual work and efforts that can be significantly shown by Pakistani handicrafts. Painting and designing over the glass, pots painting, carpets designs are a well known examples of Pakistani culture.

Ramadan Activities

Pakistan is a Muslim country and Islam is its official religion. Peoples living here have moral respect and values.

Ramadan is such an Islamic month in which Muslims avoid from eating, drinking, smoking and anything that may be the cause of their Lord anger from dawn to dusk.

During Ramadan, Muslims ask forgiveness from the GOD ALMIGHTY for past sins, pray for guidance of the right paths in their lives and help in refraining from everyday evils, and try to purify themselves through self-restraint and good deeds. They spent this holy month with praying and reading Holy Quran.

As a result of Muslims fasting for the whole month Allah blessed them with "Eid-ul-Fitr". Which is a great reward for Muslims. Eid-ul-Fitr is celebrated on the 1st of Shawwal with much celebrations, joy and fun. Before the Eid there is an event of "Chand Raat."

All girls put Mehendi on their hands, wear bangles, buy new cloths for Eid. All Muslims wish each other. There is a great happiness for everyone. On the first day of Eid, all Muslims gives Fitrana for the poor, and then our elders gives Eidi to their younger's thus Ramadan is one of the five Pillars of Islam which brings Muslims more closer towards ALLAH.